Community Will Benefit From Pharmacy Win.

By Roman Kulkewycz

Bunyip Pharmacist Dinesh Solanki has entered his pharmacy into the “Arrotex Pharmaceuticals Community Pharmacy of the Year Competition” if the pharmacy is a winner, there is a prize for a local community project to benefit from a donation of $10,000.

Dinesh has been a loyal and supportive member of the Bunyip community. As a pharmacist, he has always made himself available to patients to discuss their medications, regimes and offer advice and make recommendations. He is a very approachable, helpful and friendly man. As a business, he has assisted many local organisations to help them get “on their feet”. When the Bunyip Soccer Club was formed, Dinesh donated a set of goals to the club.

Dinesh has served the local community for over a quarter of a century. He is a former member of the Board of Hillview Bunyip Aged Care.

In appreciation of Dinesh, locals are now asked to vote for the Bunyip Pharmacy in this prestigious competition.

There are 6 Community Grants to be won. The customer scans the barcode where it’s on display and enters the Bunyip Pharmacy details and nominates a local worthwhile project for the Bunyip Community. Belinda Brasier, Store Coordinator and Promotional Organiser for the Bunyip Pharmacy said “the more votes we receive the better chance we have of winning the Grant for the chosen community project.”

As a community here is our chance to show our appreciation of the service that Bunyip Pharmacy has provided over a quarter of a century.

Smoke alarms are the best way to alert your family should fire occur in your home. Where your alarms are located is an important part of protecting your household.

- By law, smoke alarms
- They must also be located on each level of a multi-story home
- Smoke alarms should also be installed in each bedroom and living area.

Visit www.cfa.vic.gov.au/smokealarms to find out more.

In 2021 CFA responded to 130 chimney fires, with almost half occurring during the winter month. Take extra care this winter before lighting your fireplace:

- Always use a fire screen in front of an open fire.
- Keep items that can burn, such as clothes horses, at least 1m away from the heat source.

Extinguish open fires before leaving home or going to sleep.

Anniversary Celebration

By Roman Kulkewycz

There was a small gathering of friends at the Bunyip Social Hub last Wednesday to celebrate the 60th wedding anniversary of Ron and Nanette Balzary. The couple were married on Saturday 19th May, 1962.

A highlight of the celebration was the blessing of the couple by the Rev Ken Parker. Cr. Graeme Moore from Cardinia Shire, Bunyip Ward congratulated the couple on achieving this milestone and wished them many more years of happiness.

There were congratulatory cards from H.M. Queen Elizabeth, The Premier and from friends of the couple. There was a cutting of the cake to mark the occasion.

Have your say: Garfield North Community Centre

Cardinia Shire Council welcomes your feedback on the concept plans for a new community centre in Garfield North. Feedback is open until 30 June 2022.

After strong advocacy from the local community following the 2019 bushfires, the $2.3 million project will be jointly funded by the Victorian Government's Growing Suburbs Fund and Cardinia Shire Council's Capital Works Program.

As part of this successful grant submission, concept plans for a new multipurpose community facility within Cannibal Creek Reserve, Garfield North have been created. We are seeking user group and community feedback on these plans to help finalise the design.

A lack of community facilities and places for social connection were magnified as issues during the community's recovery from the Bunyip Complex Fires, which occurred in March 2019. As the community recovers from the impacts of this natural disaster, the Garfield North Community Centre project is one part of a long-term, multilayered social support and community development process to support the recovery of the community, now and into the future.

The new community centre will be used by existing recreation and community groups and provide a much-needed central meeting place for the Garfield North community.

Welcome Mat Rolled Out

By Roman Kulkewycz

The Bunyip Men's Shed group is once again meeting every Wednesday, welcoming men of all abilities to come along and join in the friendly "blokey" environment. The Men's Shed caters for those that would like to work hands on with a project using the vast variety of available tools as well as for those who want to come along and enjoy the company of others and sit and chat.

The main purpose of a men's shed is to provide for the health and well being of the men attending the shed. Assisting to reduce the social loneliness, isolation and depression caused through unemployment, retrenchment, retirement or other life changing conditions. Sheds provide a safe and friendly environment where the men can talk, learn new skills pass on their life skills and be a part of a bigger community and be involved in meaningful activities and projects.

Bob Levine working on a wood working project

Brian Lewis turning a piece of wood on the lathe.

Men's sheds offer many different things to the men that attend, but most men appreciate that the biggest part of attending is the mate ship or friendships that are formed. Being unemployed, retrenched or retired, many men no longer have someone to talk to, be it sports, politics, health, or just a sounding board for the many changes that are occurring within their lives. The friendships that are formed at a shed allow these discussions to occur. The participation in meaningful activities or projects also gives confidence and pride and a sense of accomplishment in completing these activities and projects.

A Men's shed is:

- A community owned and community operated facility
- A safe and friendly place for men of all ages to meet and socialise
- Where Men can participate in meaningful projects at their own pace
- Where Men can pass on their skills to other and learn new skill from others
- Where health and well being can be improved and social isolation, loneliness and depression can be reduced
- Where men can feel part of a larger community
- Where men can meet new friend and create lasting friendships

The Bunyip Men's Shed was established 9 years ago and currently has 24 members. Annual membership is only $20.00. There is free tea and coffee provided each week. BUNYIP- GARFIELD PROBUS CLUB

Our Caravan and Camping group headed up to Swan Hill for a week. After settling in we gathered for Happy Hour before being given the itinerary for the week. The next morning we went to the Lake Boga Boat Museum which is run by the Lions Club. On arrival we walked into the building to have a very informative talk as we stood under and admired one of the Catalina Flying Boats. We then saw a video which showed why Lake Boga was so important during WW11 from 1941 to 1947. There was a original secret communications bunker along with many artefacts that shows the proud history of the men and women of the Flying Boat Repair Depot. The afternoon was free to explore the area before having a BBQ back at the Park which was followed by lots of music and dancing.

The next day was spent at the Pioneer Settlement where we looked at the history of The Murray Mallee Region which was a step back in time as we looked at shops, a goal, post office, blacksmith, bank, saddlery and many more. Some had a ride in a Vintage 1920's car while others chose the slower pace riding in a Horse and Carriage.

In the afternoon we had a cruise on the "Pyap " then we had dinner at the Paragon Cafe before seeing " Heartbeat of the Murray which was a Spectacular Laser Light Show that everyone enjoyed.

The following day was free before the Club Hotel was invaded by a many forms of "Wildlife of the Mallee " all ready to party and have a lot of fun. There were Kangaroos, Bee's, Butterflies, Birds and many other characters all too many to mention. We had a lovely meal and then our Poet entertained us with some laughs.

Friday Morning we had a Pancake Breakfast which the Park owners cooked for us. In the afternoon we gathered to show off our skills at the Mini Golf Championship.

Saturday we went to The Spanner Sculpture Gardens which is near Quambatook. On arrival we saw a video about the man who created the amazing Sculptures. After having polio as a child he later was in a wheelchair, he found his passion for welding and creating such an array of life like Sculptures all made out of spanners of all sizes. There was a shearer, a family of deer, a horse with a dray and many others that we admired . Unfortunately John has past away but his amazing Sculptures will still be enjoyed be those who visit the Gardens.

On Sunday morning there was a Farmer's Market before gathering for an afternoon of games before having Pizza for dinner. The night was filled with laughter and fun as the Silly Awards was handed out. We all thanked the organisers who put so much time into making this week possible. We learnt about a lot about our history and saw other things that were interesting and of course we spent time with our fellow Club Members having fun and fellowship.

The next day some headed home while others continued to travel for a while. It was a great time and hopefully we will be able to do it again sometime in the future.

TALKIN' ...FISHIN' TIME REVEALS ALL EVENTUALLY.

There's nothing like a fisherman's treasure hunt through an old, "no"! A very old tackle shop in any country, possibly hidden away in a small city laneway or in any obscure country town. It gives you the feeling of an Indiana Jones on a quest to find a long lost antique lure or fly hidden away and maybe forgotten about, just waiting for you to revive its effectiveness on the rivers again.

The smell of old cedar wooden draws, leather handles still hanging on by that one solitary brass tack. Mix it with the odour of spilt oils and scents and with the dust and remnants of feather and fur filling the air when you slide them open for the first time in maybe many years. A search for the perfect imitation fly finds a gem, excitement turns to disappointment only to discover it's a dry dead moth that got trapped and has been there quite some time. What you usually find is unidentifiable fishing reel parts without their packaging, springs and screws and other strange gears and knobs, allocated to the file of the 'unknown' draw.

I love the old cabinetry, topographic maps in long wooden narrow draws, collectables and expensive reels kept behind glass with lock and key. Fly boxes and fisherman's trinkets and stream-craft hardware displayed in a gold light, like jewellery. A wall of lures and tackle defies gravity and probably a few building regulations as well. Tackle boxes, nets suspended, bait tins, creels and landing nets too. Long rods laying across tables at 45° to the floor surrounded by windowed boxes of 100's of flies, and the rest standing upright to the ceiling in their racks. Rod guides of gold and silver sparkle like a chandelier in the sunlight of fine dust particles floating in the rays of light coming through the ceiling skylight.

Creeping around the store undetected is not possible, the time worn wooden floorboards creaking gives away your position every time, the store keeper knowing every toned note by heart. Hopefully your search goes on without other customers lurking around you, there's always a reason to keep your spy eye on them and they on you, in case of a treasure find and spotted that needs to be fought over in the bargains bins. The unmistakable aroma of the bait freezer section of the shop, the stains on the floor from spills and the last power cuts disastrous result, seems always happens on a long weekend eve. The spot still sticky from when 'that kid' dropped and split a bottle of tuna oil at his dad's feet, that'll never be forgotten or forgiven, blow flies still return each summer, every year like a pilgrimage. Allow a few hours to look around thoroughly, you don't want to miss anything.

Once I missed out on a box of 140 handmade Tasmanian flies, by two days, sold for next to nothing at a second hand dealer shop, and if you can't tell, I never got over it.

But while I'm still breathing, the hunt goes on.....

Cannibal Creek Winery was abuzz on Thursday morning, 5 May, as West Gippsland Progress Association (WGPA) launched the West Gippsland Food & Tourism Strategy in partnership with Cardinia Shire Council with a champagne breakfast.

The event showcased several guest speakers, including Richard Cornish, a famous food writer and supporter of regional food & tourism, as well as local business owners - Kirsten Hardiker, Cannibal Creek Winery, Brad Alden-Brown, The Garfield Hotel, WGPA representatives Barry Crees and Food & Tourism project leader Erin Polson and Leanne Tyrrell from Tyrrell Publicity & Promotions. Hosted by Cam Smith, who has the longest-running food show in Australia, his show Eat It on 3RRR at noon on Sundays.

Erin Polson presented the key outcomes that are already completed or underway in the strategy and showcased what key outcomes were yet to be delivered. Over 70 guests, including local businesses, tourism bodies, media, and Council representatives, including the Mayor Cr. Jeff Springfield and other Councillors were delighted and engaged to see the strategy's progress.

As stated in the Pakenham Gazette - Cardinia Shire Bunyip Ward councillor Graeme Moore said he will advocate for funding for the West Gippsland Food and Tourism Strategy. "I congratulate this group for getting together, and I'm here to support them," Mr Moore said.

"I've always believed these townships would make a really great tourism area, and this is the opportunity. "I can see something positive happening."

One of the strategy's deliverables is a series of Food & Tourism small business workshops, which will begin on Monday, 23 May, and run for three weeks. To find out more, or to find out about West Gippsland Food & Tourism Strategy, please visit www.westgippslandprogassoc.org.au.
