John Beavis - Community Service Recognised

By Roman Kulkewycz

Congratulations to 86 year old John Beavis for 60 years of volunteering to the local community through the Bunyip Fire Brigade which was acknowledged by the C.F.A. at their recent 80th anniversary celebrations of the Bunyip Fire Brigade.

A quiet achiever and a wonderful bloke, John is one of the mainstays of the Bunyip Community Market. On Market Sundays John arrives early and helps with the setting up of the BBQ. You will find him busy at the BBQ stall selling sausages and hamburgers. Behind the scenes, he is always available to help out at working Bees and committee meetings.

John is pictured here with Federal member for Monash, Mr Russell Broadbent inspecting a new ride on mower that was purchased from a Grant received by the Bunyip Community Market earlier this year.

At its Committee meeting last week, thirty local community organisations from Nar Nar Goon to Longwarry shared in a total of up to $40,000.00 in grants from revenue raised through sales at the Opportunity Shop.

Community Op Shop President, Tony Arrigo said that by being able to support local organisations, it gave the committee and volunteers much pleasure in knowing that all the monies raised were being distributed throughout the local community for the benefit of locals.

Mr. Arrigo is grateful to the community for its support of the Op shop through donations and sales. “We’re a happy, hardworking dedicated team knowing that what we do is of benefit to our community”, he said.

Bunyip—Garfield Probus Club

Our Club is sad with the loss of our member Don Knight. Sending all our sympathy to Lyn and her family.

Cardiologist Brett Forge was the guest speaker at our meeting this month. He talked about the working heart and the problems that can occur in some people. After answering lots of questions he was able to demonstrate how to use a defibrillator in case we ever had to use one. Our club does have our own machine and we have been very lucky that we haven't had any emergencies where we had to use it.

On all our outings it is always taken along with us as a safety measure.

The Walking Group have been checking out a few places around Garfield and Bunyip before having lunch at the Hotel.

Our Gardening Group continues to learn from each other about the secrets of good gardening and sharing their passion as well as their knowledge.

The Fabulous Film Group are enjoying a collection of old films and last month we watched The Glen Miller Story.

Our Craft Group are showing their skills with their creative projects along with lots of chatter.

On a winters morning we headed to the Warragul Ten Pin Bowling Centre to try their luck to become the winner of the day. After a lot of playing and fun the winners were given a round of applause. We then went to the Club Hotel for a long lunch.

Bunyip Community Market committee members Tony Arrigo and Cherie Johnson prepare to plant a native tree during National Tree Day last month.

Bunyip Market Plants Tree On National Tree Day

By Roman Kulkewycz

Last month as part of National Tree Day, the Committee of the Bunyip and District Community Market planted some native trees at the Bunyip Recreation Reserve. The Market committee has undertaken a project for the development of a beautification area which is situated adjacent to the west side of the rotunda/BBQ building and will be named ‘ The Bunyip and District Community Market Picnic Garden’

Bunyip Community Market President, Tony Arrigo said it will be an ideal place for family gatherings, outdoor weddings and a great place for visitors and locals to relax and enjoy the pleasant surroundings as well as boosting the profile of Bunyip and district. There is great support of this project within the community.

“When completed, the Picnic Garden will be a place to enjoy the outdoors in a pleasant environment with native trees and shrubs and will include a picnic table and seats”, Mr. Arrigo said.

ROTARY CLUB of Bunyip, Garfield & District. There are numerous community organizations in our district and the newest is the Rotary Club. This club is a fellowship of business men resident in a district with a common objective of providing a better community for all residents. The Club, sponsored by Pakenham Rotary Club is a Provisional Club until they reach membership of twenty-five (present membership 19) when they will become a chartered Club. Office-Bearers are: Mr. George Richardson, Vervale. PRESIDENT
" Phillip Greenall, Tonimbuk SECRETARY
" George Claney, Garfield TREASURER
" Neville North, Bunyip VICE-PRES.

Rotarians undertake an annual community project and our Club have adopted a plan to refurbish the Supper Room of the Bunyip Public Hall where they meet weekly over an evening dinner. Several Community Organizations are regularly providing the meal on a rostered monthly basis. At present the Ladies Auxiliary of the Hall Committee are supplying a "delicious dinner" (I quote one of the Rotarians). Next month the Auxiliary of the Fire Brigade will do the catering and the following month the Ladies Auxiliary of Bunyip Primary School will supply the meal. This gives these Groups a good opportunity for fund raising, to further their own important service work. Best wishes to the new Rotary Club from our Bunyip and District Newsletter Committee.

SHED SECTION BUNYIP SHOW - We finished up with over 1300 entries in this section of the show. This was a little lower than last year, but according to the judges the quality was very high. One item of interest was the display of 36 varieties of apples presented by Mr. Bill Parish. Pictures of members of the Old Pioneers Association taken 1919 to 1924 were also popular. Most successful exhibitors are as follows:-

Farm and garden - Mr. K. Little
Best piece of art by student - Lauren Bowman
Slide of the Show Roylaine Studio Award - Angela Costain
Preserves & Provision - Mrs. Sharman
Needlework & Craft - Miss A. Hodgson
Cut Flowers - Cecil Brooker - Champion Dahlia - ditto
Arrangements - Mrs. Lyla Blew
Champion Arrangement - Mrs. B. King
State Fruit Cake - Mrs. C. McDermid
Warragul won the craft section for C.W.A. with Neerim Sth. 1/2 point behind them.

Longwarry C.W.A. was a clear winner of the Organizational cooking and Warragul C.W.A. was second.

The "Sun Show Girl" was Suzanne Cocks, granddaughter of Mr. & Mrs. Clive Cocks, well known for their interest in young horse-riders in Longwarry.

BUNYIP & DISTRICT PONY CLUB NEWS - The West Gippsland Group of the P.C.A.V (Pony Club Assoc. of Victoria) held its annual Combined Training Day at the Bunyip Showgrounds on Sunday 10th April. This year the host club was Bunyip, who with Drouin Pony Club jointly organised and ran the day.

Although intermittent drizzly rain fell, the day ran very smoothly and congratulations go to the hard workers from both these Clubs. We must now forget the competitors for whom these days are run. The Clubs competing on the day were Warragul, Drouin, Nar Nar Goon, Berwick and Bunyip. Bunyip Pony Club had the largest number of entries overall. The enthusiasm, keen support and good sportsmanship was evident by all the competitors. Congratulations to all the winners and to those who missed out on a ribbon, next year may well be your year, so keep trying.

Dear Readers,

We have had response to our plea for helpers as per our last edition and we welcome Mrs. Margaret Carlile as standby typist, who incidently has cut the stencils for this issue. Thank you Margaret, we know you are a busy person, helping your Husband in his business, a housewife and Mother, but then if you want something done, you ask a busy person!

Our article, "The Cat, the Eagle, and the Dog" brought favourable opinions re what to put in our paper. If anyone out there has similar experiences, tales of old, or whatever, willing to let others share it with them, please let us know, we will print it as soon as convenient.

We acknowledge further donations from Mrs. F. Bickerton, Mrs. McFagyen and the Bunyip Fire Brigade Ladies Auxiliary, thank you ladies, you work very hard for your money, and all donations are very much appreciated. Our work is voluntary, but expenses have to be met.

X "I cannot tell you how to make a lot of money friend;
But I can tell you how to find a joy that has no end.
You've but to help, and cheer, and bless, and get the giving itch,
For making others happy means - you can't help being RICH !!!"

BUNYIP RED CROSS - A relief parcel of household and personal items was given by Bunyip Red Cross Unit, following last week's house fire in Railway Avenue. This parcel was much appreciated. Bunyip Red Cross are storing household furniture and equipment in readiness to help Ash Wednesday fire victims when they progress from Caravans to rebuilt homes. We have one wardrobe, one vinyl/chrome kitchen setting, one dining table, electrical equipment, some china and utensils. If anyone wishes to add to this stock please telephone 295340 or contact Red Cross. We have five families listed, all of whom are RSL Members and who will appreciate this help when ready.

Supporting A Charitable Cause

By Roman Kulkewycz

Rain, hail or sunshine doesn't deter Frank and Robyn Hill from attending the Bunyip and District Community Market. All the money made from their bric a brac stall goes to supporting farmers doing it tough throughout Australia. The charity, known as "Need for Feed" has already benefited from a donation of $1000.00 which was handed over in April this year.

They are a lovely, friendly, generous and welcoming couple. Come down to the Market on Sunday the 25th of this month and say "hello" to them and check out their stall. If you don't buy anything from their stall, then consider making a small donation to this worthwhile cause.

Rider Safety

It's often an uncomfortable topic, but motorcycle safety is not something to be ignored.

I have often written about the joys of riding, and advantages of bikes over cars but the Herald Sun recently reported a 23 per cent increase in motorcyclist deaths this year. That amounts to 32 bikers killed on our roads so far in 2022, up from 26 recorded at the same time last year. These figures have now subsequently prompted calls for more rider training and further safety measures.

It's no secret that I enjoy my motorbiking, but the harsh reality is that it does present a higher risk activity when compared to other modes of transport. I have experienced quite a serious accident, completely my own fault, and resulting in a broken left collarbone and broken right wrist, rendering both arms out of action for a while. Needless to say, that dressing myself, using a keyboard and basic hygiene were quite the challenge for a few weeks thereafter!

Nonetheless, the accident did smack me with a good dose of reality, and I must admit I have tamed my ways somewhat. In fact, if I can provide any safety advice and guidance at all, I'd suggest that you motorbikers out there might think of my four C's when it comes to safety considerations. Those C's are Cars, Capability, Clothing and Critters:

Cars – needless to say, they are all around us. When riding, be mindful of not only the cars in front of you but also to your sides and behind you. I'd suggest you don't ride fearfully of other vehicles but rather respectfully – keep your distances, be alert but not alarmed. Also, be mindful of blindspots when it comes to other vehicles – when riding behind another car, try to show yourself in their right hand side or rear vision mirrors...just so they know you're there.

Capability – I've often said that one of the joys of riding is the community of bikers, riding in groups. The challenge though with riding in groups is that rider capabilities will usually differ, as will riding styles and the bikes themselves. My recommendation is to always ride within your own limitations – let the quicker, more capable riders go ahead, and agree to meet periodically at pre-defined locations along the journey. From my experience, when this is made clear upfront, nobody minds...it's all just part of the journey!

Clothing – I can't stress the importance of good quality motorcycle gear. It is definitely well worth the investment in more than suitable pants, jacket, gloves, boots and a top quality helmet....do not skimp...it could mean the difference between bruises and breaks if you were to come off!

Critters – we live in a beautiful country and regional area and animals sometimes crossing our roads are a reality. Some of our most enjoyable riding roads are up in the hills, or through the bush and native animals like the good old wombat or kangaroos are plentiful. When my mates and I do our trips into central Australia we have an unwritten rule that we will always pull up stumps and stop riding after 4pm, just to reduce the risk of coming face-to-face with animals as they start to mobilise around sunset.

There are plenty of other safety tips but as we turn the seasonal corner and head into spring, we dust off the bike and start planning day-trips and weekenders, please be sure to consider your gear, the conditions and some of the circumstances I've described above...and most importantly stay safe!

Write to me on the below email if you have any comments, questions or suggestions. Until next month, stay safe....cheers

TALKIN' ...FISHIN' A LASTING FINISH

Weather your assembling a fishing rod you've built or a Fly you've tied, a lure you've made or just have something special that needs a glossy finish. The final procedure can make or break the look and that should be as important to you as it would be to the recipient of the product or gift. Dress to impress as they say!

2 Part epoxy has an 8 drying time, don't rush it though as its strength is in the drying time, slowly. A clear glossy finish is the aim here, after mixing equal parts allow it to stand for 10 mins or so to allow the air bubbles to rise to the surface and pop. Stir the mixture slowly, not vigorously as this will minimise the air bubbles in it. Coat your product with a small artist brush and keep it rotating until dry, a battery spit rotisserie motor is ideal for the job. Pop any persistent bubbles with a quick pass with a gentle flame, a stove lighter will do the trick. You can use this product for coating rod bindings, flies head building, crank bait and bib lures body finishes, repairs to fishing gear and sealing knots to pass through guides easier.

Another product for use is a quality brand nail polish, there's many colours to choose from in this world. Dress your lures to the 9's and your lead jig heads. Sally Hansen's, Hard-as-Nails is always on my fly tying bench, it adds a light and hard finish to all my creations.

UV Epoxy is a whole new revelation to some, fly tiers can thank the printing, and ink trade, and once again the nail cosmetic industry for this brilliant product. 1 or 2 coats, dried between layers, no drying time, sets by a UV torch light in seconds.

A soft body over fur and fibres can be attained by using glazier's ultra-clear silicone, but it's messy so use disposable gloves and an icypole stick to apply, hang to dry for 12 hrs.

Use all these in well ventilated rooms or outside, but you can usually expect to find a bug or fly permanently immortalised in your creation next morning. Can be carefully removed with a razor blade then re-coat.
