Issue 6/2016 1000 Copies monthly 21st June, 2016.

Rotary Club of Bunyip - Garfield

Over the past month we have had a number of guests from a range of areas, including an engineer working on mining equipment in the Pilbara. We also had a visit from Ian Bennett, President of the Rotary Club of Drouin. Ian handed our club a cheque for $1800 for our assistance at the Lardner Park Motofest held in March. This amount will eventually be put towards the numerous community and rotary initiatives that we support.

We recently made a reimbursement to the Bunyip Fire Brigade for the cost of the defib pads on one of their defibrillators, which was recently deployed outside the post office in Bunyip. If your organisation has a defibrillator and it is used in the attempt to save a life, the Rotary Club will cover the cost of the pads.

June is the final month on the Rotary calendar with a new executive taking their roles on July. Rotarian John Legione takes on the role of President for the 2016 – 17 Rotary year with the official handover occurring on July 10th.

Have you thought about becoming a Rotarian, but you are not sure what is involved? Why not come along to a meeting. All you need to do is call John on 0407 357 422.

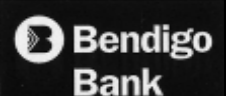

The Bunyip Community Market Committee, which gives its profits back to the local community, has recently completed a Rotunda/ Shelter Shed at the Recreation Reserve on the grassed area between the Fire Brigade running track and the Tennis Club. With toilet facilities close by, this will provide a safe and pleasant area for social events. The area is a safe distance from the road which will allow for games and other activities in a safe environment. This project was able to be initiated through the generous Grants of local organisations. Market Committee President, Tony Arrigo expressed his gratitude to those organisations and said that the next step would be to fit out the shelter with a twin plate BBQ, seating and rubbish bins as well as to enhance the surrounds.

Dear Editor,

Could I, through the Bunyip & District News, publicly congratulate the Bunyip Hall Committee. A very appreciative audience, on the evening of Friday, 3rd June, were able to watch the Savoy Opera Company's "HMS Pinafore". The performance was staged with enthusiasm, good singing, and a deal of G & S humour. Members of the audience were very well entertained and many left the Hall singing their own renderings of the well known pieces. We look forward to the performance of 'A Musical Celebration of Dame Nellie Melba', on Saturday 23 July. Thank you to all involved, Fred. Clarke

Its Painting time.

Prevention is better than cure. With the wet season approaching, its time to seal up those wooden extremities of your house to prevent wood deterioration. Cracked, bubbling or flaking paint will let moisture penetrate into your wood and could lead to costly repairs.

Most people seem to hate painting, particularly the very essential preparation side of the process. Well you should hate it, and leave it up to warped individuals such as myself to protect your properties from natures' wrath. We love it, the sanding, grinding, bogging, undercoating, and then finally, the timeless gazing as we watch the finishing coat dry.

OOOH AAAH

No fair dinkum now. I am an excellent painter with an eye for detail, and a warped sense of humour. Now is the time to seal the exterior of your house before the Autumn and Winter rain.

An elderly man was on the operating table awaiting surgery to be performed by his son, a renowned surgeon. Just before they would put him under, he asked to speak to his son: "Don't be nervous, son, do your best and just remember, if it doesn't go well, if something happens to me... your mother is going to come and live with you and your wife."

An artist asked the gallery manager if anybody asked about his paintings. "Well, there's good news and there's bad news," said the owner. "The good one is that a gentleman liked your work and asked if its value would appreciate after your death. When I said yes, he bought all 20 of your paintings." "But that's fantastic," whooped the artist. "What could possibly be the bad news?" "The gentleman was your doctor."

We at St. Thomas' Anglican Church would firstly like to thank Laurie Malcolm and Ian Chatfield for their time entertaining us at the Pleasant Sunday Afternoon on Sunday 5th June. Their chosen charity was the Salvation Army to which a cheque for $211.80 has been sent.

Thankyou also to Rene Wakelam for her ditty about false teeth and we look forward to another event later in the year. Thankyou everyone who attended.

BUNYIP ANIMAL RESCUE NETWORK

JUNE NEWS

The Lost Dogs home in Melbourne have launched a campaign asking people to take the Adoption Pledge. They have developed an online sign-up facility allowing people to confirm their commitment to adopting animals rather than buying from pet shops and backyard breeders. Pledging to adopt means that we are no longer supporting those who engage in irresponsible breeding. To take the pledge visit: www.dogshome.com

For those who wish to take a stronger stance against puppy farms in Australia, more information can be found at the Puppy Prisoners website: www.puppyprisoners.org

Saturday 2 July is voting day all across Australia. With many people becoming increasingly despondent about the cruelty that is inflicted upon animals in this country, the popularity of the Animal Justice Party has continued to grow. Their values of kindness, compassion, equality and rationality are appealing to many. Our local candidate for the seat of McMillan in the upcoming election is Jennifer McAdam. Local reps have been leafletting in the West Gippsland area, but for more information on the party's policies and goals visit the website: www.ajpvic.org.au

Still on a political platform, earlier this year ALP MP Clare O'Neil introduced the Ethical Cosmetics Bill into parliament. Following a long term campaign spearheaded by Humane Society International and Humane Research Australia, the Government has finally agreed that by July 2017 Australia will join a growing list of countries who have banned cosmetics testing on animals, and in addition, no animal tested cosmetics will be available for sale in Australia after that time. Definitely something to celebrate!

An exciting new event has been planned for next month, supported by the West Gippsland Vegan Group— and everyone is invited! Local lady, Lorena, originally from Barcelona in Spain, will be launching her new online business from the Bunyip Hall on Sunday 17 July between 1pm and 4pm. Lorena will be selling apparel and accessories sourced from all over the globe, and only from suppliers whose practices have proven to be ethical, fair trade, cruelty-free and sustainable. The event will be a fun way for like-minded locals to mingle and support a great initiative. We wish Lorena every success with her business. Enquiries can be sent to: vegangroup@dodo.com.au

The first day of July sees the opening of the 2016 Animal Photo Competition, now into its seventh year. As per usual, there are no entry fees, and photographers are invited to submit up to 3 digital images for inclusion in the competition, which closes on the last day of September. Photographers must reside within West Gippsland and the photos must have been taken within the West Gippsland region. Images can be sent to animalrescue@dodo.com.au

SIGNS of our times

On a Plumbers truck: "We repair what your husband fixed." On the trucks of a local plumbing company "Don't sleep with a drip. Call your plumber." Pizza shop slogan: "7 days without pizza makes one weak." Sign over a gynecologist's office "Dr.

Jones, at your cervix." At a tire shop: "Invite us to your next blowout." Door of a plastic surgeon's office: "Hello. Can we pick your nose?" At a laundry shop: "How about we refund your money, send you a new one at no charge, close the store and have the manager shot. Would that be satisfactory?" At a towing company: "We don't charge an arm and a leg. We want tows." On an electrician's truck: "Let us remove your shorts." In a non-smoking area: "If we see smoke, we will assume you are on fire and take appropriate action." On a maternity room door: "Push. Push.

Push." At an optometrist's office: "If you don't see what you're looking for, you've come to the right place." On a taxidermist's window: "We really know our stuff." In a podiatrist's office: "Time wounds all heels." On a fence: "Salesmen welcome! Dog food is expensive."

The residents at Hillview Bunyip Aged Care have formed a friendship with April Wilkinson, Activities Organiser at Bunnings, Pakenham. Bunnings kindly sponsors April who comes once a month to visit the residents at Hillview and provides a meaningful and enjoyable activity. Bunnings provides all materials for the activity of the month.

Her visit last Wednesday involved the making of hanging baskets which upon completion the residents were able to hang in areas where they would be able to watch grow and bloom.

April says that her job at Bunnings sees her getting out into the community.

It may be to visit seniors and do Planting or some craft. She also visits a lot of different Schools and Preschool to do planting. "We do small projects in the community, such as painting the Garfield Netball Club. These are just some of the things I do outside of the store." Said April

"My job inside the shop, involves lots and lots more, including having visits from community groups to organising the Community BBQ, Donations etc.."

BUNYIP HALL NEWS

A hundred people were lucky to enjoy an evening of highly professional entertainment when the Savoy Opera Company performed HMS Pinafore at the hall on 3rd June. The Savoy is an amateur group that only performs Gilbert and Sullivan musical dramas. The director said afterwards: "We are all still in shock! This was the most positive experience we have ever had." The show was so well received that the company has committed to bringing the Mikado to Bunyip in November this year.

In the meantime, Bunyip Hall will host a Dame Nellie Melba Musical Celebration concert on Saturday 23 July, including a display of rare memorabilia. Watch out for the advertising flyers around the district.

THE LAST POST

If any of you have ever been to a military funeral in which The Last Post was played; this brings out a new meaning of it. Here is something everyone should know. Until I read this, I didn't know, but I checked it out and it's true: We have all heard the haunting song, 'The Last Post.' It's the song that gives us the lump in our throats and usually tears in our eyes. But, do you know the story behind the song? If not, I think you will be interested to find out about its humble beginnings.

Reportedly, it all began in 1862 during the American Civil War, when Union Army Captain Robert Ellicombe was with his men near Harrison's Landing in Virginia. The Confederate Army was on the other side of the narrow strip of land. During the night, Captain Ellicombe heard the moans of a soldier who lay severely wounded on the field. Not knowing if it was a Union or Confederate soldier, the Captain decided to risk his life and bring the stricken man back for medical attention. Crawling on his stomach through the gunfire, the Captain reached the stricken soldier and began pulling him toward his encampment. When the Captain finally reached his own lines, he discovered it was actually a Confederate soldier, but the soldier was dead. The Captain lit a lantern and suddenly caught his breath and went numb with shock. In the dim light, he saw the face of the soldier. It was his own son. The boy had been studying music in the South when the war broke out. Without telling his father, the boy enlisted in the Confederate Army. The following morning, heartbroken, the father asked permission of his superiors to give his son a full military burial, despite his enemy status. His request was only partially granted. The Captain had asked if he could have a group of Army band members play a funeral dirge for his son at the funeral. The request was turned down since the soldier was a Confederate. But, out of respect for the father, they did say they could give him only one musician.

The Captain chose a bugler. He asked the bugler to play a series of musical notes he had found on a piece of paper in the pocket of the dead youth's uniform. This wish was granted. The haunting melody, we now know as 'The Last Post' used at military funerals was born. The words are:

Day is done. Gone the sun.
From the lakes. From the hills. From the sky. All is well. Safely rest. God is nigh.

Fading light. Dims the sight. And a star. Gems the sky. Gleaming bright. From afar. Drawing nigh. Falls the night.
Thanks and praise. For our days. Neath the sun. Neath the stars. Neath the sky. As we go. This we know. God is nigh

I too have felt the chills while listening to 'The Last Post' but I have never seen all the words to the song until now. I didn't even know there was more than one verse. I also never knew the story behind the song and I didn't know if you had either so I thought I'd pass it along. I now have an even deeper respect for the song than I did before.

Dinesh Solanki has been the Bunyip pharmacist for 24 years and has assisted many locals with medication advice and other health related matters. Although not living locally, Dinesh has always taken a generous interest in in our community. When the Strikers Soccer Club was first formed, Dinesh sponsored sets of goals to get the Club on its feet. Dinesh has also taken part in local forums aimed at benefitting the community. He has always been community minded and helped many people. I found his story very interesting as I'm sure readers of this newsletter will too

YOUR NAME: Dinesh Solanki

Please give me some background information about yourself:

I came to Australia about 28 years ago, newly married, from Fiji Islands. I am the eldest child of a family of 3 siblings, of Indian parents who were first generation Indians in Fiji. I studied pharmacy at University of Queensland as an overseas students and returned to Fiji on completion of my degree.

As well as working in Fiji I have worked in Brisbane, Mooranbah (Central Qld), Bendigo, Forest Hill and have owned Bunyip Pharmacy since 1992. If I am not mistaken I may be the longest owning proprietor of a business in Bunyip currently – now that Neville has retired!

I have 2 children Vishaan and Prianka, both now at University.

Where do you Live? Vermont

How long have you been a Pharmacist in Bunyip? 24 years

The Pharmacy Address and opening hours? 19 High St Bunyip Vic 3815. Pharmacy opens 9am Monday to Friday and closes 5.30pm each weekday. Saturday trading hours are 9am to 12.30pm. We are not open on Sundays or Public Holidays.

Any Special Features or services that the Pharmacy provides?

Pharmacy now has a bulk billing GP next door. Not many realise that we have a Consultant Pharmacist that we engage at the request of a doctor to perform a HMR (Home Medication Review). If you qualify (which your doctor decides) then we can send our consultant pharmacist (not me!) who will come to your home and go through with you, all your medications (prescribed, vitamins, natural medicines, etc) and write up a report that will go back to your doctor, and a copy comes to us at the pharmacy, with recommendations. This service will not cost you as it is paid for by the federal government.

Also we have started an App called Medadvisor at the pharmacy. This is an excellent way to save time.

You have the ability to not only know how many prescriptions/repeats you have at the pharmacy but actually request a script to be filled via your device such as your PC at home or your smart phone. You walk in the pharmacy, your script is ready – no waiting! The App will also give reminders of when a script needs to be filled and what prescriptions are to be renewed when you are going to visit your GP.

What do you like about Bunyip? A lot of things! – that's why I am still here after 24 years! Seriously, it's the people of Bunyip, our locals. They are friendly, engaging, accepting and very loyal. Up until just a few years ago I knew every single person that came into our Pharmacy by their first name. Now as the town is growing we are seeing a lot more new faces, especially families with young children and a lot of mature couples looking for a quieter place to live and retire.

Your favourite Pastime/Hobby? I love reading, especially biographies and motivational books. I love going for walks, love going to 1000 steps in the Dandenong Mountains, love movies.

What type of movies do you enjoy – your favourite movie? I love comedy, thriller, and really any genre that has a twist. Many years ago I saw a movie called "What Dreams May Come" Robin Williams was in it; the meaning of that story line was a bit farfetched and extraordinary – and I enjoyed that!

Do you follow/ play any sports? I did play a bit of soccer and cricket and played competitive table tennis. Follow North Melbourne9 wins in a row!

Describe yourself in 2 sentences? Simple, quiet, contemplative and take people at face value.

Your Likes.....enjoy single malt whiskey

And Dislikes.....people who stay on the right lane when not overtaking!!

Are you a Warm or Cold weather person? Warm weatherremember I came from a tropical country.

Is there something unique about you that many people may not know? As long as you keep it between us...I do Pilates?

A new “State of the Art” bus for the residents of Hillview Bunyip Aged Care to enable the them to go on outings and excursions in maximum comfort was delivered on Friday the 20th of May to Hillview. The bus boasts many modern safety and comfort features. Hillview Board of Management members Gerard Collins, Barbara Dickinson and Alan Cole as well as Hillview CEO Frank Hoff and residents were present to welcome the arrival of the bus from Warragul Renault.

This bus replaced the existing one which had been in service for the past ten years.

A recent scientific study showed that out of 2,293,618,367 people, 94% are too lazy to actually read that number.

Well what do YOU think we should use for fillers in the ‘News’?

Never, under any circumstances, take a sleeping pill and a laxative on the same night.

Hillview Board Members Alan Cole and Barbara Dickinson check out the new bus, watched by CEO Frank Hoff.

Trying out the new bus for style and comfort are Hillview residents (L – R) Fay Proctor, John Webb, Gloria Johnstone and Duncan Holman.

Little Johnny is making faces at school. The teacher catches him at it and says, “You know when I was little and made faces, my dad told me a secret. And that is that when you keep making faces, your face finally can’t go back and you end up really ugly.” Little Johnny quietens and says, “Well, at least you were warned...”

Facebook for the Senior Generation

For those of my generation who do not and cannot comprehend why Facebook exists:

I am trying to make friends outside of Facebook while applying the same principles. Therefore, every day I walk down the street and tell passers by what I have eaten, how I feel at the moment, what I have done the night before, what I will do later, and with whom.

I give them pictures of family, my dog, and of me gardening, taking things apart in the garage, watering the lawn, standing in front of landmarks, driving around town, having lunch, and doing what anybody and everybody does every day.

I also listen to their conversations, give them the "thumbs up" and tell them I like them.

And it works just like Facebook. I already have four people following me:

two police officers, a private investigator, and a psychiatrist

Duncan makes a stand

Duncan Holman has been a resident at Hillview Bunyip Aged Care for the past 12 years.

He is the longest serving member of the CFA. Currently standing at a staggering 78 years of service.

In support of the current CFA volunteers, who are in dispute with the Firefighters union he has stated that he will resign if necessary in support of many other anticipated volunteer resignations. Duncan was Captain of the Longwarry Fire Brigade for 36 years.

When he reached 70 years of service with the CFA, they had to design and mint a special medal as there was no one else previously who had attained this many years of service. There will probably never be another CFA member who will reach this fantastic milestone.

In 2 years time Duncan will be due to receive his 80th Year of Service medal and the CFA will have to again design and mint this one off decoration.

Duncan can be contacted for comments/interview on 5629 5190

BUNYIP LANDCARE NEWS

Landcare has two events coming up in July which are open to everyone.

The first is a field day on Thursday 14 July at 1.30. We will start at the hall in Main Street and then visit a member's property with Bunyip River frontage. Visitors will get an idea of the help that is available from Melbourne Water to protect their stock from waterways. We will also hear from Wurrundjeri elders, in a first for Bunyip Landcare Group, about how they looked after the land before European settlement. We'll return to the hall for afternoon tea and there will be ample opportunity to chat with our guest speakers. This is a free event and is part of the Cannibal Creek Catchment Biodiversity Project in partnership with Cannibal Creek Landcare Group, Melbourne Water, Cardinia Shire and Port Phillip and Westernport CMA.

Two days later, and once again at the hall, by popular demand we are once again holding our Bushdance. And once again the CWA will be providing their super fantastic cream sponges for supper.

This is a relaxed and fun event, no experience necessary!

For more information about either the field day or the bush dance, please contact jacandart@bigpond.com or call 5629 5123.

Pet Therapy is an enjoyable activity with many therapeutic benefits for residents living in aged care facilities. Most have been pet owners before coming to live in residential care.

Robert Graham of Longwarry visits the residents at Hillview Bunyip Aged Care each fortnight with his three and a half year old Chinese Sharpie dog called Yao. This visit is popular amongst residents who look forward to each fortnightly visit.

This breed of dog was especially bred in China to be used by the Emperors as companion dogs, making it an ideal visitor to Hillview.

Bunyip - Garfield Probus

Our outing for Last month was to the Mail Centre at Dandenong for a guided tour to see how they sort mail. After we had lunch at the Lynbrook Hotel. John McDonald from Berry Street was the guest speaker for May. Berry Street is the largest independent provider of residential care for at risk and traumatised children and young people in Victoria. Nothing is more important than the safety of children in their care. They believe that every child should have a childhood and not have to deal with some of the terrible things have had too. At Christmas they give each child in their care a gift because a lot of them have never had any presents because of their sad circumstances. With a lot of guidance and care they hope to give them a chance at a better life in the future. We were very interested to see how the owners of The Cora Lynn Cheese Factory had restored the old building that a lot of us have been driving past for years. The main dinning was full of charm with artworks and lovely china. They invited us to look at their Bed and Breakfast area which is being booked a lot. We then were serviced a lovely High Tea. After a very enjoyable day we headed home.

We are urgently in need of an Advertising Co-ordinator here at the News. The job is not hard, is mainly computer based and needs no more than a few hours per month. If interested please contact Tony on 0407 563 441 or Barry on 0418 584 414

TALKIN' ...FISHIN'

MAKE A 'BERLEY DROPPER'

Constructed of 65mm and up to 90mm pvc pipe (plumbing section) with push-on cap ends, drill holes in the centre of both caps in either 8mm or 10mm depending on the cord thickness you choose to use. It is very important that the hole in the top lid (A) is very central so as to pull evenly on the release.

Drill about 12 holes evenly around the tube to let water in, start in from where the caps ends, come in about 75mm. Attach a knotted loop cord passing through both end caps, then knot at the end of the cords, make sure the top cord (1) is shorter than the bottom cord (2) taking the weight of the whole dropper tube.

The bottom cap (B) is to be glued on permanently, using a clear pvc solvent glue (Plumbers stuff). When using this berley delivery system in strong current, (not advising this) you would need to add weight to the bottom of the cord (2).

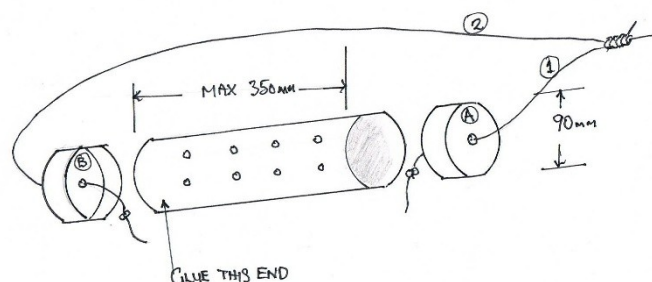

Assuming that you're all finished making it, and its ready to use now, fill with enough berley to suit your needs, push top cap (A) on and lower into the water and allow to fill slowly with water through the tubes holes, then lower away gently to the bottom. Lowering until it lands on the bottom, bring it up a bit, a "sharp" tug on the cord will separate the top lid (A) from the tube, (you'll feel this) keep pulling and the tube will invert and spill its contents below you. Pulled up by the bottom lid (B) to the surface, refill and re-cap ready to go. Make sure you regularly check any wear on the cord, or you'll be making a replacement for the one left on the bottom. If the cap (A) comes away too easily over time a sand paper rubbed over the rim of the tube will give it more grip.

This is great for boating and pier fishing, but remember to cast to the rear of where you've deposited the berley according to the flow direction of any current, you don't want to supply the other anglers down from you with fish, compliments of your berley mix. The whole apparatus should cost no more than $10 to make, good fishing y'all.

*Remember don't feed the fish; just excite them with a little now and then.

This diagram hopefully matches what you've made.
